Dear Greg:

As per my voice mail message, I had a long talk this morning with the USPTO examining attorney regarding ROUNDER CLUB. I think we may be able to get this done (to quote her, "making it one word is something we would ignore"). We may be OK because the Rounder Enterprises LLC TM for the magazine exists and it would be owned by basically the same people KYLE TONGO the requirements would be two different LLC's. I need to do some supplemental filing with the USPTO, which I can online but since it's "under penalty of perjury", I can't make any mistakes (even a small inadvertent one). Please call me so we can discuss the "unity of interests" that exists between the two entities. If the ownership was identical or if one entity owned the other, it would be best, BUT if the ownership structure is "close" to identical, that might be enough. Give me a call ASAP.

Best,

Jeff
